

COMMUNICATION, B.A.

Overview

Overview

The study of communication is inherently interdisciplinary and applicable across nearly every vocational area. Communication has always been a feature of the curriculum at Biola University and in various forms, a major area of study for degree seeking students. In addition, Communication is a central feature in the Core Curriculum as it is key outcome via verbal communication, written communication, and information literacy.

Our program areas are endorsed by academic and professional associations including National Communication Association, Religious Communication Association, Public Relations Society of America, and the Association of Collegiate Journalists and the College Media Association. We hold the Certification in Education of Public Relations (CEPR). Our students have the opportunity to participate in five student media: The Chimes, The Point, The Torch, EagleVision, and The Biolan. Student organizations include PRSSA and an honor society, Lamda Pi Eta. All students must complete a series of two internships and complete a capstone with a deliverable product that exemplifies academic and/or pre-professional expertise.

Upon completion of the University baccalaureate and major requirements, the Division of Communication offers the Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication (<https://www.biola.edu/degrees/u/communication-ba/>). Obtaining a degree with one of the three concentrations offered requires 60 program credit hours.

Learning Outcomes

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Bachelor of Arts in Communication, students will be able to:

1. Describe the communication discipline, its guiding principles, and various specializations (ULO 1).
2. Engage in communication inquiry, employ theories, and critically analyze messages (ULO 1 and 3).
3. Create messages appropriate to the audience, purpose, and context, and demonstrate self-efficacy (ULO 1, 2, & 3).
4. Apply ethical communication principles and practices, and demonstrate cultural competency (ULO 1, 2, & 3).
5. Impact public discourse through framing, evaluating, and advocating for local, national, or global issues from a distinctly biblical perspective (ULO 1 & 3).
6. Produce an artifact showcasing academic or pre-professional expertise (ULO 3).

Each Program Learning Outcome (PLO) listed above references at least one of the University Learning Outcomes (ULO 1, 2, 3), which may be found in the General Information section (<http://catalog.biola.edu/general-information/#UniversityLearningOutcomes>) of this catalog.

Program Requirements

Writing Competency Requirement

Every Biola student must fulfill the Writing Competency Requirement (WCR). Students fulfill the WCR by passing ENGL 313 with a C+ or better. If they fail to meet this requirement, they must consult with their major advisor for an alternative WCR pathway. For more information, see the section titled "Writing Competency Requirement" under the Admission, Enrollment and Graduation Requirements section (<http://catalog.biola.edu/general-information/admission-enrollment-graduation-requirements/#writingcompetencyrequirement>).

GPA Requirements

Communication, B.A. majors must achieve a minimum grade of a C in all major courses taken at Biola. Anyone receiving a lower grade must repeat the course with a higher grade to receive credit for the course.

Communication Forum

Students in the Division of Communication are required to attend the Communication Forum each semester. During this event, students will complete their academic advising, as well as participate in conversations valuable to their curricular and co-curricular experience within the program.

When a student is unable to attend the Communication Forum, they must complete a formal proposal for the absence, to the division, at least one month prior to the event. The student is responsible to obtain the required form from the department. It is also the responsibility of the student to complete and submit the form by the deadline.

Students who have an accepted proposal for absence are required to individually make up the missing information through an additional assignment. A written report is required from students, two weeks before class registration, in order to complete their requirement for missing the forum.

Internship

Internship, comprising a total of 3 credits, is required for graduation in the Communication, B.A. major. Students will complete the 1-credit course COMM 344/PREL 344/JOUR 344, as well as the 2-credit course, COMM 444/PREL 444/JOUR 444. Students may take the internship courses multiple times to complete more internships for credit. Students, guided by their academic advisor, are encouraged to pursue other (non-credit) internships to gain as much hands-on experience as possible before their senior year. Students must take the internship courses as ordered by prerequisites, but internships (for credit or for non-credit) may be completed any semester or during the summer under supervision of department faculty, guided by stipulations of the Internship packet.

No more than 6 credits of Internship may be applied toward major requirements.

Digital Journalism and Media Concentration

Senior Portfolio Review

All students in the Digital Journalism and Media concentration are expected to complete a portfolio review before graduating.

The portfolio consists of the student's best work, completed through coursework or internships during the time they have been enrolled in the concentration. The review will be completed by a committee of full-time faculty (with input from a professional outside of the institution) as well as by the instructor for the Media Capstone course during the selected semester.

The student's portfolio will be rated for competency or non-competency. Competent work can also be rated as exemplary. Students whose portfolio does not earn at least a competency rating must re-submit their portfolio to the Review Committee or retake the course (if the grade requires such).

Timing of the portfolio review ideally will be the semester before graduating (typically fall semester of the senior year in a normal four-year undergraduate cycle).

Traditional students should schedule a preliminary portfolio review with their academic advisor at the end of five semesters to plan successful completion of the portfolio review. Transfer students should schedule a preliminary portfolio review after two semesters.

Scheduling of the Senior Portfolio review will be completed as part of the Capstone course requirements. Any exception to this plan must be approved by the full-time faculty.

Public Relations Concentration

Senior Portfolio Review and Certificate

All students in the Public Relations concentration are expected to complete a portfolio review as well as the Certificate in Principles of Public Relations examination prior to graduation.

The portfolio consists of the student's best work during the time they have been enrolled in the major. The review will be completed by a committee of full-time faculty.

The student's portfolio will be rated for competency or non-competency. Competent work can also be rated as exemplary. Students whose portfolio does not earn at least a competency rating must re-submit their portfolio to the Review Committee or retake the Senior Portfolio and Certificate course (if the grade requires such).

Also as part of the graduation requirements as well as the Senior Portfolio and Certificate course, students will prepare and complete the Certificate in Principles of Public Relations examination.

Course Sequence

NOTE: The course sequence table is designed by the major department and is one way that the classes will work out properly in sequence for your major. However, there are alternative or flexible ways to rotate some of the classes within the same year/level and sometimes between year levels. Please contact your major department advisor to discuss flexible alternatives in scheduling the sequence of your classes.

Taking coursework during the summer session may also be an option to accelerate your degree path.

See Core Curriculum Program section (<http://catalog.biola.edu/general-information/undergraduate-core-curriculum-program/>) for a list of approved Core Curriculum courses.
