

EDUCATION, M.A.ED. (LICENSURE)

Program Description

The Master of Arts in Education (Licensure) (<https://www.biola.edu/degrees/g/education-ma/>) is a research-oriented degree that prepares candidates to work in a variety of academic settings, including leadership roles, and sets the stage for a doctorate. The program emphasizes professional writing, research and theory.

The Master of Arts in Education (Licensure) is offered with the following specializations:

- Early Childhood (<https://catalog.biola.edu/soe/maed/SEEC/>)
- Induction/Clear Credential (<https://catalog.biola.edu/soe/maed/SEIC/>)
- Multiple Subject (<https://catalog.biola.edu/soe/maed/SEMU/>)
- Personalized (<https://catalog.biola.edu/soe/maed/SEPR/>)
- Preliminary Education Specialist Instruction Credential — Mild to Moderate Support Needs (MMSN) - Internship (<https://catalog.biola.edu/soe/maed/SMPI/>)
- Preliminary Education Specialist Instruction Credential — Mild to Moderate Support Needs (MMSN) - Student Teaching (<https://catalog.biola.edu/soe/maed/SMPT/>)
- Single Subject (<https://catalog.biola.edu/soe/maed/SESB/>)
- Special Education (<https://catalog.biola.edu/soe/maed/SESE/>)