

CLASSICAL THEOLOGY, M.A.

Mission

Classical Theology exists to train students to read the Christian Scriptures and to retrieve the theological riches of the classical Christian tradition for the sake of contemporary appropriation in intellectual life, spiritual formation, and in service to the church and Christian witness in the world.

Learning Outcomes

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Master of Arts – Classical Theology (<https://www.biola.edu/degrees/g/classical-theology-ma/>), students will be able to:

1. Analyze and synthesize the works of classical Christian theologians for the sake of retrieval (ULO 1).
2. Analyze and synthesize the doctrines of the Christian faith using key theological convictions, habits, and strategies undergirding classical theology (ULO 1 and ULO 3).
3. Analyze and interpret biblical texts with theological awareness and in conversation with the history of Christian interpretation (ULO 1)
4. Appropriate the spiritual/formational insights of classical theology in personal, academic, and social contexts (ULO 2).

Each Program Learning Outcome (PLO) listed above references at least one of the University Learning Outcomes (ULO 1, 2, 3), which may be found in the General Information (<http://catalog.biola.edu/general-information/>) section of this catalog.
