Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 806 - The Challenges of Asian-American Leadership Credits 6

Asian-American leaders can expect particular challenges in ministry. These issues will be explored with the goal of preparing a proactive plan to overcome these challenges. This will include biblical training in conflict resolution, conducting a healthy staff, building a resource network for crisis situations, and developing a personal support system. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 807 - Lessons on Longevity for the Asian-American

Leader Credits 6

The focus for this course will be to help Asian-American leaders build healthy practices that will lead to a long and enduring ministry. Lessons will include spiritual self-care, team support-building, physical and emotional nurture, and careful, strategic, planning for the long haul. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 808 - The Asian-American Mentor Credits 6

This class will give a biblical overview of mentorship and will teach the leaders how to mentor others for leadership development. Different models of mentorship, discipleship, and coaching will be examined in light of the busy schedules of people today. This week of study will include an emphasis on the topic of leadership succession. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 809 - Understanding Leadership Credits 6

Students will learn the character and competencies required of a Christian leader. Instruction will involve biblical exegesis, exposure to leadership literature, and interactive dialogue with current Christian leaders. Students will then engage in a self-assessment exercise of their current leadership practices. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 810 - Speaking as a Leader Credits 6

Students learn why Christian leaders need to speak God's word and how to speak God's word. Students learn how to identify a biblical idea and effectively employ that idea in their public communication. Students learn how to be persuasive and how to understand the people they are speaking to. Students speak in class without notes. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 811 - The Nature of the Church Credits 6

This course is held off campus and involves travel to different cities. Students enhance their ability to evaluate a ministry theologically. Students are exposed to a variety of theologies of the church through lectures and 'on location' exposure. Students interact with ministry leaders, fellow students and their faculty-mentor to discover and theologically evaluate a variety of evangelical ministries. As a result, students should be able to accurately assess and express the theology of their own ministry. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 812 - The Cultural Sensitivity of the Church Credits 6

This course is held off campus in a different city. The goal of this course is for students to enhance their ability to evaluate the cultural adaptation of a ministry. Students interact with ministry leaders, fellow students and their faculty-mentor as they discover in what ways and how effectively these ministries have adapted to the culture in which they minister. As a result, students are better able to assess and express the cultural sensitivity of their own ministries. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 813 - Healing the Wounded Leader Credits 6

During this class, students learn how and why ministry leaders are wounded in ministry. Through interaction with their faculty-mentor and guest faculty, students learn a variety of strategies to address the hurts experienced by leaders in the practice of ministry. Students apply these strategies to their own ministries and the ministries of others where appropriate. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 814 - Healing the Wounded Congregation Credits 6

Students learn how to assess if, and how severely, a ministry has been wounded. Through interaction with their faculty-mentor and guest faculty, students also learn a variety of strategies that leaders can use to address the corporate wounds of a ministry and facilitate healing and wholeness. Students apply these strategies to their own ministries and the ministries of others where appropriate. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 821 - The Biblical Context of Discipleship and the Person I Credits 6

During this class, students explore their own background in discipleship practices in light of the historical and biblical context of discipleship, seeking to understand Jesus' distinct form of discipleship. This leads to an understanding of discipleship as Jesus intended it to be developed in the early church, and how Paul and Peter and other biblical authors developed discipleship and spiritual formation in their writings as a theoretical and practical way of life for individual believers and the church. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 822 - The Biblical Context of Discipleship and the Person II Credits 6

During this class, students examine and apply these biblical principles of discipleship in their personal life. Students are guided by resident and guest professors as they reflect upon their lifetime of study and application of discipleship and spiritual formation. Students conclude by developing a strategy of personal growth in their discipleship to Jesus, and how that can be implemented in the lives of those within their ministry. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 823 - Discipleship as the Ministry of the Church I Credits 6

Students explore God's plan for the church and how discipleship can be understood as a holistic ministry of the church. Students are assisted by resident and guest professors in understanding the nature of the church and its relation to discipleship. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 824 - Discipleship as the Ministry of the Church II Credits 6

During this class, guest professors escort students through past and present ministries to examine specific practices of discipleship within the church. Students visit with guest professors and examine first-hand various aspects of discipleship, including mentoring, leadership development, and small groups. During the rest of the week, we discuss life-span Christian education, youth ministry, family ministry, counseling, evangelism and follow-up. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 825 - Discipleship and Community Relationships I Credits 6

During this class, students explore the relationship of the biological community, the family, with the spiritual community, the church. Family developmental experts guide students to elaborate the working relationship between family and church discipleship and how they can support and promote each other. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 826 - Discipleship and Community Relationships II Credits 6

This class expands the study begun in TTMN 825 to include a strategy for developing discipleship relations between the local church and various external communities, including parachurch ministries. Veteran Christian leaders guide students through an examination of strategies to build a local discipleship community that reaches into their neighborhood, school, workplace and the world. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 827 - Foundations of Executive Management Credits 6

Students gain a biblical and theological basis for management in the local church and learn to critically reflect on the advantages and disadvantages of various governance models in local church ministry. Students develop a strategic plan for their particular ministry. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 828 - Personal Strengths Assessment Credits 6

Students learn how to gain a better understanding of their own strengths and spiritual gifts. Students are then guided into how best to apply their personal strengths to their present area of ministry leadership. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 829 - Finances, Facilities and Fundraising Credits 6

TTMN 830 - Legal and Ethical Issues in Executive Management Credits 6

Students learn how the legal system affects the development and operation of churches as well as ethical dilemmas being faced in complex ministries today. Issues such as staff hiring, firing, liability concerns and policy development are covered. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 831 - Personnel Development and Human Resource Management Credits 6

Extensive overview of matters pertaining to recruiting, training and developing volunteer and paid staff ministry leaders. Students learn how to develop policies and procedures, conduct in-service training seminars, and how best to mentor leaders. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 832 - The XP Tool Box Credits 6

This course covers a variety of topics, including PERT (Program Evaluation and Review Technique) charting for effective program management, overseeing information technology, working through teams, becoming a change agent, handling conflict resolution, and personal career development. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

TTMN 833 - Developing Life Groups and Transforming Communities Credits 6

Life Groups and Transforming Communities form the platform for pastoral counseling ministries and marriage and family ministries as well as student's leadership development. First students will learn compassionate connecting skills and how to teach them to church leaders. Then we will look at Life Groups with a pastor who uses them as his primary strategy for developing more and closer followers of Jesus. Third, we will explore Transforming Communities and their roles in healing individuals and marriages as well as developing volunteer ministers. Students design a plan to develop Life Groups or Transforming Communities in their churches, and receive feedback. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

- TTMN 834 - Counseling Individuals, Couples and Families Credits 6
 This course focuses on how to help individuals, couples and families realize their conflicts and take responsibility for the changes that will dismantle their barriers to God and each other. The goal is not to turn students into pastoral counselors but to equip students to develop those in their churches who are gifted to develop transforming ministries including mentoring with individuals, couples and families. Students demonstrate competency in the skills of a Christ-Church multi-level model for counseling individuals, couples and families and to demonstrate awareness of personal limits by setting default decisions for counseling and referral. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 835 - Developing Redemptive Family Ministries I Credits 6
 The focus of this class is on developing family and counseling ministries in church that will meet some of the needs of people in neighborhoods as well as the people in the congregation, and be on-ramps to evangelism. Students design and/or develop a Redemptive Family Ministry appropriate to a student's church's needs, goals and resources. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 836 - Developing Redemptive Family Ministries II Credits 6
 This course challenges and equips students to develop a plan for ministry to people in a selected form of non-traditional family structure. This course will equip students (and through them, their leaders) to reach people in family structures that don't normally experience churches as open to them. The residency outcome will be to write and develop this plan for a classmate and obtain your professor's evaluation. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 837 - Ministering to People in Addictive Bondage Credits 6
 This class will extend the focus of the second residency to minister to people both in and outside a student's church who are living in addictive bondage. Examples of bondage are alcoholism, drug addiction, sex addiction, gambling as well as more common addictions such as addiction to eating and smoking. The residency outcome will be a workable plan addressing these issues. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 838 - Ministering to People in the Wake of Crisis, Loss and Trauma Credits 6
 This class equips students and their churches to minister in the wake of individual, family and neighborhood crisis, loss and trauma. Recent catastrophes such as 9/11 and Hurricane Katrina showed the need for thousands of volunteers who have been trained to respond to spiritual and emotional needs. People in your church can be equipped to minister in the wake of shootings, accidents, and bereavement in your neighborhoods as well as the larger traumas such as earthquakes and firestorms. Students develop contingency plans for their ministry. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 839 - Understanding Worldviews and Culture I Credits 6
 Designed to produce confidence in engaging worldviews in a manner that is culturally relevant and theologically and philosophically informed. Students examine the nature of a worldview, and probe the foundations of the two major worldviews that rival Christianity and shape our culture: naturalism and postmodernism. Students interact with the strengths and weaknesses of the emergent church movement and address open theism. Time will be given to Islam, a rising influence in our culture, and students will learn ways Christians can reach Muslims. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 840 - Understanding Worldviews and Culture II Credits 6
 Students learn how to think Christianly in the midst of worldview conflict and cultural chaos. Four areas of conceptual clarity examined: (1) crucial notions in metaphysics relevant to preaching, the nature of reality, the reality of truth, love, life after death, and God Himself; (2) crucial notions in epistemology at the center of cultural conflict; (3) the nature of consciousness and human persons; and (4) important issues in science and religion, reductionism, and the Intelligent Design debate. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 841 - Engaging Worldviews and Culture I Credits 6
 Leadership tools in the areas of ethics and politics. Addresses how to help people to think ethically by evaluating relativism, moral absolutism, utilitarianism, and virtue ethics, and to consider individual impact upon character development and discipleship. Students learn about issues such as abortion, euthanasia, embryonic stem cell research, cloning, capital punishment, just war theory and homosexuality. Since we live in a political world, the course includes a look at the different views of the Kingdom of God, the church/state relationship, Christian political engagement and social justice. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 842 - Engaging Worldviews and Culture II Credits 6
 Students examine specific cultural issues and voices. Students learn about and discuss culturally significant books, movies, events and leaders. Students also learn about the nature of the modern secular university: how it developed, why it is so hostile to Christianity, how it impacts the church and what can be done about it. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 843 - Reclaiming Worldviews and Culture I Credits 6
 Students gain skills needed to defend Christianity and to equip the local church for boldness in evangelism and cultural engagement. Students form answers to issues such as the existence of God, pluralism and the exclusivity of Christianity, challenges to the historical Jesus, the problem of evil, and the fairness of hell. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 844 - Reclaiming Worldviews and Culture II Credits 6
 Students learn practical ministry implications of previous coursework. Students examine the nature of spiritual formation and discipleship, learn how to discern the voice of God and His guidance, learn how to foster a healthy, balanced experiential knowledge of God and His Spirit within the Christian religious tradition, and the criteria for discerning answers to prayer. Students also learn how to preach apologetically and how apologetics and worldview can be applied to youth ministry. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.

- TTMN 904 - Preaching to the Heart I Credits 6
 This course will provide a complete overview of the process of preparing biblical sermons from start to finish. Students will hone their skills in moving from the text to the sermon, developing outlines that reflect the biblical author's flow of thought, and shaping their sermons for maximum impact. Each student will have the opportunity to prepare and deliver a sermon from a didactic/epistolary section of Scripture, and receive feedback from the faculty-mentor and the class. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 905 - Preaching to the Heart II Credits 6
 In this course, students will work through two additional genres of biblical literature (narrative and poetic). Each student will prepare and deliver a sermon from a narrative section of Scripture, and again receive feedback from the faculty-mentor and the class. Different kinds of filing systems will also be discussed, which will enable the student to stay on the cutting edge of biblical scholarship and retain resources for future preaching. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 906 - Renewing the Mind I Credits 6
 This course will lay a biblical and theological foundation for apologetics and cultural engagement. By exploring the rich resources of the Gospel, students will develop a model for engagement that is adaptable to a variety of institutions and practices. Students will explore the nature of apologetics and begin to develop a strategy for some of the larger issues in apologetics – the existence of God, evil, suffering, worldviews, religious pluralism, relativism, science and reason. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 907 - Renewing the Mind II Credits 6
 This course will focus on equipping students to build culture-leaders. We will explore the nature of institutional change and how believers can inhabit those institutions faithfully. Students will also develop a facility with a broader concept of apologetics that connect the Gospel with the deeper affections of people. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 908 - Caring for the Soul I Credits 6
 This course investigates spiritual formation in Christ, focusing in on our own transformational discipleship to Jesus as well as how to come alongside others in their discipleship to Jesus. It includes a discussion of the historical and sociological forces that have influenced the variety of contemporary understandings of spiritual formation, followed by the development of a biblical-systematic theology of discipleship and formation. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 909 - Caring for the Soul II Credits 6
 This course focuses on the strategies, challenges, and best practices of implementing spiritual formation in the local church and para-church given the diverse contexts in which we find ourselves. It includes discussion of how spiritual formation is connected to mission, social justice, and evangelism. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 910 - Foundations of Black Church Spirituality I Credits 6
 This course discusses the unique role and interface of the Black Church Tradition in America, from a historical and contemporary context. Careful review is provided of the formation of spirituality and faith within the presence of Black people in America. The course then traces this presentation through the Reconstruction, Modernity, and contemporary constructs that either affirm the viability or vulnerability of the Black Church. Grade Mode: A.
Restriction(s): Must be African American Ministry (TDAF); and Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 911 - Foundations of Black Church Spirituality II Credits 6
 This course provides observation of the many contributions of the Black Church and its leaders, relative to the spiritual, social, and economic connection to the Black community and all of society. Further resources examine means by which the Black Church in America is evolving through the influence of younger generations and innovative leadership. Grade Mode: A.
Prerequisite(s): TTMN 910.
Restriction(s): Must be African American Ministry (TDAF); and Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 912 - Theology of African American Ministry I Credits 6
 This course will focus on the Christian identity and influence of the African American leader. Biblical principles and psychosocial constructs are reviewed with emphasis given to the integral role of leadership within the Black community. Specific discussion centers on the importance of integrity, character, discipline, and nurturance. The role of the leader as spouse, parent, mentor, and influencer is studied and applied with this course. The church leader is presented as the catalyst of the community and change-agent within the culture. Grade Mode: A.
Prerequisite(s): TTMN 911.
Restriction(s): Must be African American Ministry (TDAF); and Doctoral Level.
- TTMN 913 - Theology of African American Ministry II Credits 6
 This course will explore African American leadership through the narrative and example of past leaders in the historic Black Church. We will explore the subject of suffering, evil, justice, redemption and empowerment from the pulpits of the Black churches to the platform of the world. This course will encourage students to draw from the rich theological and philosophical traditions that govern healthy discourse and activism within the context of the gospel. Grade Mode: A.
Prerequisite(s): TTMN 912.
Restriction(s): Must be African American Ministry (TDAF); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 914 - Innovative Methodologies of African American Leadership I Credits 6

This course will focus on Christianity, race, and the American nation. The ministry of reconciliation is affirmed through this course. The African American leader's role as reconciler and cultural communicator is emphasized through discussion and studies that challenge the scholar to evolve and emerge as facilitators of innovation and change. Critical thinking is embraced as discussion acknowledges the complexity of culture and the impact of informed leaders. Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 913.

This course examines the what, why, and how pastoral transitions and succession are navigated and implemented. Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 914.

Restriction(s): Must be African American Ministry (TDAF); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 916 - Spiritual Theology and Formation for Soul Care I Credits 6

This course introduces Spiritual Theology and formation, focusing particularly on the nature of our new vocation as members of the New Covenant life "in Christ" and "in the Spirit" and the implications for daily Christian living. Particular attention will be given to understanding motivation in Christian living (moralism, legalism, lawlessness, and freedom) and issues of guilt, shame and spiritual failure, in light of our new life in Christ, for the shepherd and for soul care of others. Emphasis is also given to the nature of transformation by the Spirit of the human person, that includes a spiritual theology of the heart and the means of grace in transformation. This includes exploring the heart with the Holy Spirit in prayer and cooperating with his transforming presence – particularly as this relates to shepherds and their peculiar vocations in church and para-church organizations. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Spiritual Formation and Soul Care Specialization (TDSF); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 917 - Spiritual Theology and Formation for Soul Care II Credits 6

This course continues the introduction of Spiritual Theology and our life in Christ and in the Spirit, focusing on the nature of transformation and the means of grace God employs in transformation and how the Spirit works in our life in various seasons of our life, especially during times of spiritual dryness. Particular emphasis is given to re-training the life of the shepherd in opening to God in prayer and one another regarding one's personal, relational, and spiritual history and vocation in order to redeem and reclaim for Christ the whole of one's life, and how this relates to caring for other souls. Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 916.

Restriction(s): Must be Spiritual Formation and Soul Care Specialization (TDSF); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 918 - Spirit, Prayer, and the Care of Souls I Credits 6

This course will lay a biblical and theological foundation for Pneumatology (Doctrine of the Holy Spirit) as it relates to prayer, ministry, and the New Covenant transformation of the believer's heart. There is much confusion and needed understanding in this area. Emphasis is given to a spiritual theology and phenomenological understanding of how the Spirit actually works in believers' lives, how believers can resist or struggle with this, and how believers can better cooperate with his work and presence in knowing of God. Attention is also given to the work of the Spirit developmentally in the different seasons of the spiritual life (the spiritual beginner, times of consolation, dryness, dark nights of the soul, maturity etc.). Focus also on developing practices that assist learning to walk, depend upon, discern and be filled with the Holy Spirit. Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 917.

Restriction(s): Must be Spiritual Formation and Soul Care Specialization (TDSF); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 919 - Spirit, Prayer, and the Care of Souls II Credits 6

This course continues to lay a foundation for a spiritual theology and phenomenological understanding of the Holy Spirit as it relates to personal growth, walking in the Spirit, and one's vocation of ministry to others in the Spirit. Special attention is given to training shepherds and leaders to become the kind of person who can listen both to God and others "in the Spirit." Includes training in spiritual discernment, listening to God and others, and life in the Spirit for the shepherd's personal life and in caring for souls in individual and group contexts (individual mentoring, small groups, church/elder boards, etc.). Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 918.

Restriction(s): Must be Spiritual Formation and Soul Care Specialization (TDSF); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 920 - Prayer, Formation, and Soul Care in Preaching Credits 6

This course attends to a variety of theoretical and practical issues related to prayer and the caring of souls in preaching and teaching ministries. Emphasis is given to understanding the nature of preaching in the history of the church, a theologically-informed philosophy of preaching, and the relationship of spiritual theology to the goals of preaching and teaching. Special emphasis is given to understanding the relationship of prayer to sermon preparation, to the act of preaching, and to the goals of preaching in soul care. Overall emphasis is given to personal calling and the vocation of retraining and caring of souls, particularly as it relates to teaching and preaching ministries. Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 919.

Restriction(s): Must be Spiritual Formation and Soul Care Specialization (TDSF); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 921 - Prayer, Soul Care, and an Ongoing Rule of Life Credits 6

This course deepens the discussion of practical issues that emerge in spiritual formation and the care of souls. Particular focus is the ongoing development of a life of prayer, knowing God, and discernment of his presence and love. Attention is also given to understanding and providing soul care for a variety of sinful struggles confronting shepherds and the people of God, which may include mental illness, spiritual depression, burnout, worry, anger, anxiety, addictions, gender struggles, sexual sins and pornography, abuse, trauma, bitterness, worldliness, spiritual warfare, and a variety of struggles related to family and relationships in and outside the church and ministry – and how these issues and struggles affect and develop in the lives and vocations of those caring for souls. Emphasis is given to developing spiritual formation that is relevant and possible for soul care in local church and parachurch ministries, as well as ability in wise referral for other types of treatment. Included is also an understanding of how the soul has been poorly or well trained by the time of adulthood, the nature of retraining the soul in Christ, and a spiritual theology of the spiritual disciplines (particularly prayer and knowing God), which includes the development of a personal Rule of Life that is reasonable for a leader's life, for the church (liturgy), and for the community of saints. Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 920.

Restriction(s): Must be Spiritual Formation and Soul Care Specialization (TDSF); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 940 - A Biblical Foundation of Justice I Credits 6

This course will look at a biblical theology and a systematic theology of justice in the Old Testament and the New Testament. We will explore God's heart that is so often expressed in passionate terms for justice throughout Scripture. We will also examine a brief history of justice in the church and how that led to a "social gospel" issue especially with global missions. We will also look at cross-cultural communication, practices, and competencies to effectively engage in conversations about biblical justice with humility. Grade Mode: A.

Restriction(s): Must be Biblical Justice (TDJU); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 941 - A Biblical Foundation of Justice II Credits 6

This course will explore justice in the church. We will do a theology of power and the role it plays in the pursuit of justice. We will look at how the current trend of clergy abuse is not a new phenomenon and what we must do differently as a church leadership to create a church that values justice in the church before we seek it in the community. Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 940.

Restriction(s): Must be Biblical Justice (TDJU); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 942 - A Practical Theology of Justice in the Local Church I Credits 6

This course will begin an exploration through some of the key areas of injustice we face as a nation, such as poverty, racial injustice, immigration, the unborn, clergy abuse and other common struggles in our communities. We will look at why these issues are gospel issues for the local church body to address. Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 941.

Restriction(s): Must be Biblical Justice (TDJU); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 943 - A Practical Theology of Justice in the Local Church

II Credits 6

This course will be looking at the injustice issues through a practical theology lens so that the church can engage them biblically and practically. We will explore how the local church can become agents of change and expressions of grace within their communities. Grade Mode: A.

Prerequisite(s): TTMN 942.

Restriction(s): Must be Biblical Justice (TDJU); and Doctoral Level.

TTMN 944 - A Practical Theology of Justice in the Global Church

I Credits 6
